MeetingOne Wins Adobe's "Partner of the Quarter" Award

Denver, CO: MeetingOne, a virtual event technology provider and Adobe Acrobat Connect Solution Partner, received the coveted award of "Connect Partner of the Quarter for Q2 2007" from Adobe for successful sales and marketing activity. This award is voted on by the Adobe sales team and is awarded to one partner in North America each quarter. The following quotes are examples of the praise submitted by Adobe sales reps regarding MeetingOne:

MeetingOne has taken great steps in building out and investing in crucial infrastructure components of their business including sales, marketing, engineering and operations. Partner of the quarter would be deserved based on these revenue contributions and commitment to Adobe.

MeetingOne was instrumental in helping to close many large-scale Connect deals. Their knowledge in the tool helped closed these deals in a timely manner.

MeetingOne has been very active on following up on leads, and has closed almost every deal we have worked on together. They take great pride in their work.

MeetingOne is a full service virtual meeting and event solution provider. MeetingOne is headquartered in Denver, Colorado and has operations in Brussels, Paris, and Montpellier. Since 1999, MeetingOne has been a one-stop source for virtual events through its easy-to-use audio, web, and event conferencing technologies.
